

STANDARD CONDITIONS OF RELEASE

IT IS ORDERED that the defendant's release is subject to these conditions:

- (1) The defendant must not violate any federal, state or local law while on release.
- (2) The defendant must cooperate in the collection of a DNA sample if the collection is authorized by 42 U.S.C. § 14135a.
- (3) The defendant must advise the Court, the Pretrial Services office, defense Counsel and the U.S. Attorney in writing before making any change in address or telephone number.
- (4) The defendant must appear in court as required and must surrender for service of any sentence imposed as directed.
- (5) The defendant must refrain from use or unlawful possession of a narcotic drug or other controlled substances as defined in 21 U.S.C. § 802, unless prescribed by a licensed medical practitioner.
- (6) If the defendant fails to report as required to the Pretrial Services Agency, defendant may be subject to such random visits at his/her residence or work by a Pretrial Services Officer as may be necessary to verify his/her residence or place of employment in order to secure compliance with the order of release.
- (7) The defendant must not possess a firearm, destructive device, or other weapon.

SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF RELEASE FOR TESTING, TREATMENT OR EVALUATION AND FOR LOCATION MONITORING

1. If the defendant fails to appear for any specified treatment or evaluation, defendant may be subject to such random visits at his/her residence or work by a Pretrial Services Officer as may be necessary to verify his/her residence or place of employment in order to secure compliance with the order of release.
2. The defendant must not obstruct, attempt to obstruct, or tamper with the efficiency and accuracy of prohibited substance screening or testing. Testing may be used with random frequency and may include urine testing, the wearing of a sweat patch, a remote alcohol testing system, and/or any form of prohibited substance screening or testing, as determined by Pretrial Services.
3. If defendant is subject to a location restriction program or location monitoring, defendant must:
 - (a) stay at his/her residence at all times except for approved activities and may not leave for approved activities without providing prior notice to Pretrial Services, except in cases of medical emergencies.
 - (b) abide by all program requirements and instructions provided by Pretrial Services relating to the operation of monitoring technology. Unless specifically ordered by the court, Pretrial Services may require use of one of the following or comparable monitoring technology: Radio Frequency (RF) monitoring; Passive Global Positioning Satellite (GPS) monitoring; Active Global Positioning Satellite (GPS) monitoring (including "hybrid" (Active/Passive) GPS); Voice Recognition monitoring.

FORFEITURE OF THE BOND

This appearance bond may be forfeited if the defendant does not comply with the conditions of release set forth in this Order Setting Conditions of Release and Bond. The court may immediately order the amount of the bond and any Collateral surrendered to the United States if the defendant does not comply with the agreement. At the request of the United States, the court may order a judgment of forfeiture against the defendant and each surety for the entire amount of the bond, including interest and costs.

RELEASE OF THE BOND

This appearance bond may be terminated at any time by the Court. This bond will be satisfied and the security will be released when either: (1) the defendant is found not guilty on all charges, or (2) the defendant reports to serve a sentence.

ADVICE OF PENALTIES AND SANCTIONS TO THE DEFENDANT

Defendant is advised that violating any of the foregoing conditions of release may result in the immediate issuance of a warrant of arrest, a revocation of the order of release, an order of detention, a forfeiture of any bond, and a prosecution for contempt of court and could result in imprisonment, a fine, or both.

While on release, if defendant commits a federal felony offense the punishment is an additional prison term of not more than ten years and for a federal misdemeanor offense the punishment is an additional prison term of not more than one year. This sentence will be consecutive (i.e., in addition to) to any other sentence defendant may receive.

It is a crime punishable by up to ten years in prison, and a $250,000 fine, or both, to: obstruct a criminal investigation; tamper with a witness, victim, or informant; retaliate or attempt to retaliate against a witness, victim, or informant; or intimidate or attempt to intimidate a witness, victim, juror, informant, or officer of the court. The penalties for tampering, retaliation, or intimidation are significantly more serious if they involve a killing or attempted killing.

If, after release, defendant knowingly fails to appear as the conditions of release require, or to surrender to serve a sentence, defendant may be prosecuted for failing to appear or surrender and additional punishment may be imposed, whether or not the defendant is convicted of the pending charges. If defendant is convicted of:

- (1) an offense punishable by death, life imprisonment, or imprisonment for a term of fifteen years or more – defendant will be fined not more than $250,000 or imprisoned for not more than 10 years, or both;
- (2) an offense punishable by imprisonment for a term of five years or more, but less than fifteen years – defendant will be fined not more than $250,000 or imprisoned for not more than five years, or both;
- (3) any other felony – defendant will be fined not more than $250,000 or imprisoned not more than two years, or both;
- (4) a misdemeanor – defendant will be fined not more than $100,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both.

A term of imprisonment imposed for failure to appear or surrender will be consecutive to any other sentence imposed. In addition, a failure to appear or surrender may result in the forfeiture of any bond posted.
